The Hockaday School

Dallas, Texas

Dear Francis,

It has been a great being in your class - You have been wonderful to everyone with words of encouragement for all. Your writing and thinking has inspired me as well as everyone else — With love, Candy

Miss Ela Hockaday

Foreword

The Hockaday School was founded in 1913 as a college preparatory school for young women. In its fifty year history, the school has indeed become one of the most outstanding in the Southwest. A student at Hockaday today can find not only intellectual challenge but also experiences and friendships that will remain a part of her character in her college years and ultimately in whatever career she may choose. We can look back on the tradition of excellence based on Miss Hockaday's four cornerstones of scholarship, character, courtesy, and athletics; and we can look ahead to a future of continued excellence in ever-broadening fields.

The Senior Class of 1964 started off events of the year with the Senior Trip to Wiley's Dude Ranch. Shortly thereafter, the class began preparations on the Senior Play, The Madwoman of Chaillot, which was a great success. A full round of social events, highlighted by the Senior Prom, helped make this a memorable one.

The Fourth Form this year was responsible for publishing and selling the school directory, keeping study hall, and giving chapel. The Class of 1964, the Fiftieth Anniversary Class, has had an enjoyable year through an active interest and participation in Form and school activities.

Sponsor Mrs. Oram supervising a class meeting.

The House Council is the governing body of the residence department. It is made up of one president from each of the four halls and the hall proctors. The House Council formulates and enforces the rules by which the resident students must live. The aim of the House Council this year has been to improve boarder-day student relations by allowing day students to spend the night in the resident department on weekends.

The Athletic Board, made up of its President, the Green and White Captains, and the Green and White Representatives from each form, plans the year's athletic events. The exhausting task of these eleven girls is choosing and coaching the various form and Green-White teams. The Athletic Board generates spirit by making posters and spirit tags for each of the games. In the spring, this group sponsors an all day picnic off campus.

The Community Service Committee coordinates the efforts of the students on behalf of various charitable organizations. As a fund-raising project, the Committee presents an annual style show sponsored by Neiman-Marcus. Weekly production parties are held, during which workers earn hours toward their Red Cross pins by making toys and favors for hospitalized children. At Christmas the Committee collects presents donated by the students for distribution to needy children. The Committee also coordinates a schedule of volunteer hospital workers.

The School Service Committee, under the auspices of the Student Council, performs many functions to benefit Hockaday. About six girls from each of the four forms are selected as members by the chairman in September. The Committee has two major projects during the year: Dad's Day and the All School Picnic. It also performs various odd jobs around the school which are essential to school life, such as straightening the college catalogues, collecting stray books, and assigning the tables in the lunch room.

Drama Club

The Hockaday Drama Club is composed of two groups, the Pretenders and the Hockaday Players. The Players are those girls who are chosen for the work which they have contributed beyond the call of duty. This year the club presented Eugene Ionesco's The Bald Soprano and Noel Coward's Blithe Spirit. One of the aims of this year's club is to organize a film project whereby films can be made and shown at the school.

Art Club

The purpose of the Art Club is to give its members a deeper understanding of all forms of art. During the meetings, which are held twice a month, the members have an opportunity to dabble into the various mediums of painting, drawing, and sculpture. Through this experience and through outside speakers the club hopes to arouse interest and talent in the realm of today's art.

Philosophy Club

President ..... Barbara Fix

Secretary-Treasurer ..... Jennifer Fabian

Sponsor ..... Mr. Slaughter

The Philosophy Club is an informal group that meets to discuss various current events. Mr. Slaughter, the sponsor, directs the discussions and tries to give perspective to contradicting ideas, but each member has an opportunity to contribute her opinion to the discussion. In order to avoid a gab session, the discussions follow a definite agenda. This year the group explored the present situation and historical background of Communism in modern China.

Piano Literature

President ..... Becky Moore

Secretary-Treasurer ..... Beth Marr

Sponsor ..... Miss Rea

The Piano Literature Club aims to give a more critical appreciation and understanding of music by giving intimate glimpses into the great masterpieces written for the piano. The club is open to any girl in the Upper School who enjoys classical music. During informal weekly meetings under the direction of Miss Rea, the sponsor, critical analysis of pianist's interpretations of various works are made.

Wreathmakers

The Wreathmakers Society is a group created to further the success of the Roman Banquet sponsored each spring by the Latin Department. The society is open to any girl who has shown her interest by making three wreaths. After these wreaths, an open ivy wreath, a closed ivy wreath, and a flower wreath, have been approved by at least three members, then the student becomes a full member of the club. This year for the first time, the seventh and eighth graders have formed a Junior Wreathmakers patterned after the Upper School club.

Now meow, Mrs H., Let's not get sarcastic!

Frances,
Good Luck
in school upper and lower length. May you other wise.

Grace

From,
You really are talented in writing
And I hope it will have you in at least one class next year.

Frances—
It's been a great knowing you. Stay as sweet as you are—

See ya soon

Grace

Majors

With every Good wish for Frances,
a delightful student.
